Annual Member's Meeting & Educational Session

NATIONAL LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITY & UPDATES

“Rick Robinson is General Counsel and Senior Vice President at the Manufactured Housing Institute (MHI). He first became familiar with manufactured housing issues when working as Legislative Director for then-United States Congressman Jim Bunning. Following his stint on Capitol Hill, Rick was a practicing lawyer focusing on commercial finance. As a lobbyist during that time he garnered a reputation for developing relationships on both sides of the aisle. When Rick is not out preaching the virtues of manufactured housing, he can be found waist deep in a cold river pestering trout.”
